

Access Video On Demand

Educational videos for learners of all ages
in your community

Access Video On Demand provides public libraries an expansive, search-friendly collection of high-quality videos that inspire inquiry and broaden knowledge. With something for every member of your community, Access Video On Demand allows learners of any background to binge great educational videos responsibly, all for one fixed price.

Why it's great

Content for patrons of all ages

A wide selection including TV shows, how-to programs, documentaries, and more—supporting lifelong learning, building information literacy skills, and complementing entertainment-focused options.

Empowers community learning and digital confidence

- Content includes public performance rights (with some exceptions) and features educational and engaging programs that promote information literacy—from career exploration and tech skills to media awareness and homework help for kids.

High-value, cost-effective resource

- Offers unlimited educational content for the entire community that is ad-free, supporting critical thinking and digital fluency with new programs added regularly at no extra cost.

This is quality material. The videos are useful, engrossing, and on-target for the audience, and the breadth of the subject matter is considerable.”

- Library Journal

Learning tools

Curate Your Content

Discover, save, organize, and share related materials and playlists to support community building and keep patrons engaged.

Organize Projects

Find, save, and organize your materials for easy reference when working on a project or task.

Topical Activities

Connect your community events and activities to current events. Curated topics are highlighted by our editorial teams on the homepage and in featured resources.

