

WORLD CINEMA Streaming Video Collection

More than 745 classic and contemporary feature films from Africa, Asia, Europe, Latin America, the Caribbean, the Middle East, and North America.

This unique collection includes the best of the silent era, groundbreaking international directors, American and European masterpieces from the mid-20th century, award-winning contemporary films from Global Lens, and films from Africa and the African diaspora from ArtMattan Productions. The collection shines a light on the history of cinema while also providing a glimpse into the cultures and issues of countries around the world—making it useful beyond film studies departments by bringing value to programs in area studies, political science, history, world languages, and more.

All foreign language films are accompanied by English subtitles. Using Films On Demand's Custom Segment tool, faculty and students may create customized segments of specific scenes from a film, which can be embedded, shared, and saved.
