Why it's great

Unbeatable collection development with trusted sources

Give patrons a vast array of high-quality, reliable non-fiction from trusted imprints such as Bloom's, Chelsea House, Ferguson's, Facts On File, and Omnigraphics with unlimited, simultaneous, 24/7 access on any device—no waiting lists.

Tool to support effective research and analysis

Powerful search functions and intuitive navigation make finding books and information incredibly easy, supporting varied research strategies and providing patrons with an accurate foundation for critical analysis and the application of information.

Empowers lifelong learning

They support patrons' lifelong learning from homework help to career growth to personal research, empowering them to turn knowledge into action.

I love Infobase products and the support behind the products!"
